

Madam Cantarelle

Côtes de Provence

“Rosé with a feminine touch, elegant and very glamorous style.”

Winemaking:

Harvesting in Provence is done in the cool of the morning to prevent alteration of the grapes which are then taken to the cellar and kept as cool as possible. All these steps gives access to wine-making from the heart of the berry.

Grape varietal:
Syrah,
grenache,
cinsault

Taste:

Cuvée all in roundness. Delicate aromas of yellow-fleshed fruits. Beautiful aromatic finish.

Alcohol:

13% by vol.

Soil:

red clay limestones and schists
