

CHÂTEAU SAINT SEURIN DE LEVIAC

AOP BORDEAUX SUPÉRIEUR

---

Château Saint Seurin de Léviac, owned by Renaud and Claire Jean, is the Jean family's second vineyard. Located in the Entre-Deux-Mers wine region, 80 km from Bordeaux, Château Saint Seurin de Léviac is a site known since the middle of the 15th century, in Roquebrune. Saint Seurin is the name of the old chapel that formerly sat on the vineyard site. The name pays tribute to the fourth bishop of Bordeaux, who is still the patron saint of Bordeaux

LOCATION: Bordeaux

APPELLATION: AOP Bordeaux Supérieur

AGE OF VINES: 25 years

FARMING: Hand-harvested, the land is worked in the most traditional and environment-respectful approach.

SOIL: Clay loam

VARIETY: 100% Merlot

ALC. 13%

TASTING NOTES: Intense ruby red color with deep purplish inflections. Well-balanced wine with a pleasant acidity and refined tannic structure accentuated by black pepper and a nice persistence. Ideal with a terrine or pâté, red and white meats, and soft and hard cheeses.

WINEMAKER: Renaud Jean

