

AOP BLANQUETTE DE LIMOUX

---

Founded in 1860, Maison Antech is led by owner and winemaker Françoise Antech-Gazeau. Françoise took over the family estate 25 years ago, aiming to showcase to the world what makes sparkling wines from Limoux so special. Through her wines, Françoise is offering a unique expression of the terroir of Limoux, full of freshness and complexity.

LOCATION: Languedoc

APPELLATION: AOP Blanquette & Crémant de Limoux

ELEVATION: Between 200 and 450 meters

AGE OF VINES: 30 years

FARMING: The estate's entire production is certified Terra Vitis since 2004, showing a strong commitment to sustainable farming through a global strategy to reduce the impact of wine production on the environment.

SOIL: Limestone and clay

VARIETY: 90% Mauzac, 5% Chardonnay, 5% Chenin Blanc

ALC. 12%

TASTING NOTES: Pale yellow color with golden reflections and fine bubbles. The nose expresses spring flowers and fresh tree fruits. The palate is lively, harmonious, and round. It imitates the feeling of biting into a very delicate Granny Smith apple. Ideally suited as an aperitif or paired with seafood & shellfish

WINEMAKER: Françoise Antech Gazeau

